DIVING RIGHT
HAPPINESS...

DIVING RIGHT INTO HAPPINESS...

...means much more than just hoping.
It means at last living one's dream
and knowing true freedom.

Freedom to breathe beauty.
Freedom to contemplate purity.
Freedom to swim in a safe place.
Your place.

This blue interlude where all is calm, clear, stress-free: a Renaissance swimming pool. Just a little clear water, lots of know-how, and so many emotions to share for years to come.

Playing, swimming, laughing, relaxing,
getting together, recharging one's batteries,
with family or among friends... For 25 years,
we have been installing happiness in each model of our line of swimming pools.

Defying fashions and trends, a Renaissance swimming pool will always be a sound investment. Elegant, economical, ecological, ageless... It is an intelligent investment that enhances your home and stimulates your well-being.

Before diving into the happiness of your Renaissance swimming pool, I invite you to swim through the pages of this leaflet to learn more about our passion.

RENAISSANCE:
THE SWIMMING POOL WITH A BIG HEART

The better to love work well done.

If we are proud to have filed 87 original patents since 1994, it is because our passion for swimming pools keeps driving us towards excellence. We design only intelligent swimming pools, for maximum satisfaction. Observe the soothing calm of our pools.

The silent water, pure lines, and noble materials conceal the latest technological innovations. All of our models, whether standard or custom built, are 100% made in India and pass down through the years in beauty.

25 years
of innovation

SATISFACTION

The pleasure of water at will!

Do a few breasts-strokes and feel yourself gliding on the water, or crawl like an Olympic champion, then do a back float in a RENAISSANCE swimming pool, each one savours, according to mood, the always fresh pleasure of a successful aquatic experience. However large or small your pool, you can turn it into a raging torrent and swim against the flow.

In the Intense mode as in the Balnéo mode, with Magisport 2 (yet another innovation signed RENAISSANCE), you master the intensity of the current and the power of its flow to swim without moving forward and... stay in great shape! Sensations of relaxation and vitality... The benefits of water tamed reinvigorate both body and mind.

NO LONGER BE THE WITNESS
OF YOUR DREAMS

Indoors and out, by day as at night, your swimming synchronises with your craving for light. NEOLIGHT spotlights light up our swimming pools and turn them into multi-coloured baths. Let yourself be drawn by the irresistible charm of our relaxing ambiances. Gently and with elegance, RENAISSANCE helps you imagine the bathing space that suits you.

BE WELL,
THAT'S IT
ART

Stretch out on the deck of a RENAISSANCE swimming pool and rediscover the fullness of living in freedom. The surface of the water, smooth as a lacquer sky, brought to life by the lightning passage of a swallow. Nacreous reflections, peaceful rays of sunlight, sky blue lapping at the fancy of the stair steps... Your thoughts breathe at last! Just take the time to contemplate your little paradise before tasting the water.

PERFORMANCE
RIGHT DOWN
THE LINE

Cross our swimming lanes to reach the shores of perfection. Heartthrob guaranteed! The boldness of the lines, the authenticity of the style... Savour each detail, each moment. We adore marrying the technical to the artistic to invoke dreams that are very much alive. The water is there, tamed for you. The urge to take off your peignoir and dive in is irresistible!

THE INTELLIGENCE OF BEAUTY

You love voyaging in a universe that is mineral, vegetable, and above all original. The deck and approaches of your swimming pool create the magic: You walk as on clouds. The air seems lighter, time suspended. Under your feet, in silence, the latest technological innovations are at work to deliver pure water, perfectly filtered and at the right temperature.

THE HIGH SPIRITS
GENERATION

Swim in felicity, play dolphin or diver... but, most important of all, take full advantage of your swimming pool in complete peace of mind. With RENAISSANCE, safety is not optional. Protection of the water and of the surrounding space, protection of persons, strength of the materials... We have built safety into the environment of every one of our swimming pools.

From the FX Line filtration system to our ELYSEA 2 heat pumps, we equip all of our swimming pools with technologies that are reliable, economical, and rugged. You enjoy impeccable bathing quality for many years.

WE'VE THOUGHT OF EVERYTHING,
YOU FIRST OF ALL

EXTEND SUMMER AND THE HOLIDAYS!

It's good to be in a swimming pool, even better to feel good there. To bring you water that is neither too warm nor too cold, ideal for swimming in all seasons, we have developed. With a single adjustment, this revolutionary heat pump makes the swimming season twice as long. Your water remains a delight even as the fine weather fades

PURE PLEASURE

Do you want to swim in the sky, opening your swimming pool to the horizon? Do you want to find a little bit of ocean at the summit of your terrace? At RENAISSANCE, we imagine all the possibilities with you, from standard to custom-built. And then we make them happen.

Ultracompact with maximum pleasure. A pocket handkerchief is all you need for a magnificent fully equipped swimming pool!

Corner stairs, counter-flow swim, the play of underwater lights, remote control with the iMAGI Premium app, a depth of as much as 1.5m... Piscines RENAISSANCE adapts its know-how to all sites, even the smallest. Your pleasure will be all the greater.
